PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

DESCRIPTION

TOP QUALITY NATURAL STONE SIMENA PREMIUM LIMESTONE TILES

Simena Luxury Limestone is a kind of Beige Limestone Quarried in Turkey.

Simena limestone tiles are a type of natural stone tile known for their subtle elegance and durability. They are typically made from limestone quarried in regions known for high-quality stone, and "Simena" could refer to a specific variety or finish.

Simena Limestone is a geological formation predominantly found in parts of Turkey, particularly in the Antalya region along the Mediterranean coast. This type of limestone is notable for its fine-grained, often cream to light beige color, making it a popular choice for building and decorative materials in architecture
