DESCRIPTION

THE FIRST CLASS NATURAL STONE EMERALD GREEN MARBLE TILES

Emerald Green is a gorgeous marble characterized by its pale-green natural color background with translucent hints of mint, sea green, and emerald crystalline marking.

Quarried in Asia, this marble is a popular choice to be incorporated into contemporary and traditional design

Authentic Natural Stone: Marble is a hard crystalline metamorphic rock. It is denser than marble, as a result of having been exposed to heat and pressure. Prized for its timeless elegance and natural beauty, marble is available in a wide variety of colours from white and beige marble to black and green and textures. Most variations of marble take polished very well. We specialise in marble sourced from Asia, however, we also offer an extensive assortment of marble options sourced from all over the world.

Choosing the perfect mosaic is an important part of defining your style, Add your home to the list of beautiful spaces enhanced by the elegance of marble mosaic. Emerald Green Mosaics
