DESCRIPTION

HIGH QUALITY NATURAL STONE NERO MARQUINA MARBLE SLAB

Originating from Markina in northern Spain, our Nero Marquina marble creates a dramatic look with the high contrast of black and white throughout the slab. This stone features a deep black surface of white veining which creates a statement on its own.

Nero Marquina is defined by a deep black backdrop with a delicate inverse bright white veining producing a timeless monochromatic décor. It works in bathrooms as either tiles or slabs, walls, and floors for a visually appealing statement in stark contrasts. Both majestic and practical in equal measure, Nero Marquina remains a true designer's friend.

Our Nero Marquina marble is a wonderful choice for your kitchen or bathroom. With stunning dark color, this beautiful stone will add elegance to your home. This stunning black marble can be used as worktops, or even as a standout feature in the house, in areas like kitchen, bathroom walls & floors, vanity tops & fireplace. Nero Marquina marble is also decorative and can be used on walls and stairs.
